Saad Shaikh

Summary

Saad Shaikh

Student at LJ University, 6th Sem BCA

As a dedicated 3rd-year student at LJ University, I am passionate about frontend development and determined to secure an exciting internship opportunity. With a strong foundation in HTML and CSS, I aspire to create user-friendly interfaces that make a lasting impact. I'm not just looking for an entry-level role; I'm seeking an opportunity to grow with an organization, expand my professional skills, capabilities, and knowledge
